It's not often that a long day in the garden also brings pampering to mind, but the French Linen Watering Can does just that. Perfect for green fingered folk who also like to treat themselves a little, this quirky bath & beauty gift perfectly blends both passions.

The re-usable watering can houses an assortment of bath treats and garden accessories. This unlikely pairing is instead a match made in heaven with an undeniably charming presentation, effortlessly marrying functional and fabulous. The luxurious hand lotion, hand wash and body soap are all infused with Milk Thistle which is renowned for its soothing properties, fantastic for hard working hands in need of nourishment. The crisp, fresh scent of this extract is also the perfect way to cool down after a long afternoon in the sun. The charming watering can also contains a pair of gardening gloves and a nail brush so that your hands are in tip top shape while you potter about in the garden.

If you have a gardening enthusiast in your life who also loves a long soak in the bath, then this is the perfect gift for them. In fact, its quirky charm might even inspire non-gardening people to pop on the gloves and do a bit of weeding!
